

Lawrence J. Ho
Barrister & Solicitor
BA, JD, LLB, LLM

Lawrence is a Chinese-Canadian attorney qualified in Ontario and B.C. and based in Vancouver.

Since 1996, Lawrence has developed a consulting practice with Family and Corporate Foundations in their Grantmaking and Philanthropy. Lawrence also supports various Non-Profit organizations (NPO's) and Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's) especially those in the Charitable sector in Asia.

Academically, Lawrence has a Masters of Law (LLM) in International Trade and International Comparative Law from the London School of Economics (LSE). He also has law degrees from Canada (LLB) and the United States (JD) and is qualified to practice law in the provinces of British Columbia and Ontario. Lawrence previously taught International Comparative Law in Beijing at China's Largest law school, the China University of Politics and Law. (CUPL, 1994-1995)

Lawrence's ongoing NGO and government relations work in Asia including countries like China, Vietnam and North Korea.

Lawrence is the co-founder of the Vancouver Grantmakers Forum (since 2005) which serves as a resource and conference to help philanthropic families explore their charity as informed by their faith worldview.

Lawrence sits on the Board of the ShowHope Foundation founded by Steven Curtis Chapman and family. Lawrence was the founding Executive Director of the Chang Family Foundation. Lawrence sits on the Board of the Abba Foundation (Toronto), and Regent College (Vancouver, BC).

Lawrence has been married to Dr. Angela Lee since 1996. They opened CR+ CrossRoads Medical Clinics. (www.crossroadsclinics.com) in April 2009.